A LAKE FRONT SCHEME.

THE COMPLETE SCHEME FOR WORLD'S FAIR AND THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Explanation of the Plan for the Big Fair-ground to Join the Park for the Exposition and the Park Scenic for Handling the Enormous Number of the Exposition Attractions, Besides the Bad Open Ditch in the Foreground.

At a meeting of citizens held in the headquarters of the Commercial club on Monday last for the purpose of considering the question of the location of the World's Fair, Mr. Edward Kitchell presented a plan for putting the exposition on the lake front and a series of views to be held on the same. The meeting had been called for the purpose of considering the question, and Chairman Ferry, in calling the meeting to order, said:

"I have no doubt a committee to confer with the authorities of Jackson Park will be appointed, and I suppose that the committee will be instructed to report at the next meeting of the Commercial club. I suppose that is the object of the meeting."

Mr. Kitchell then arose and said:

"I have not come here to-night to speak in favor of Jackson Park, but I have come here to-night to speak in favor of the lake front. I have not come here to-night to speak in favor of Chicago, but I have come here to-night to speak in favor of the whole United States. I have not come here to-night to speak in favor of the Columbian Exposition, but I have come here to-night to speak in favor of the World's Fair

ATWOOD

Proposes to Give Away Some Hundreds of Children's Suits.

We've read somewhere that "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches," and as we look at it we think it would be a benefaction to help the Boys of Chicago get good names.

If you, fathers and mothers, will let us name your Boy Suitor we will give you an order on our Children's Dept. for the Best Knee-Pant Suit that has ever worn, and it shall be a GOOD SUIT, TOO. We will not give any names to babies over 6 months of age, in fact all the older ones must already have fixed appearances. We agree not to propose any objectionable names, unless, perchance, you should object to "ATWOOD" for the middle name. Can't see why any one should object to that. It has served us a mighty good turn.

We're not joking about this thing; give us satisfactory evidence of good faith and we will keep our part of the contract. Record Boats ready today.

Whether we name your Boy or not we would like to have them all in the ROGERS, PEET & CO. suits in the Knee-Pant Suits. THEY give the best kind of satisfaction.

[illegible]

SATURDAY, AUGUST 10, 1889.

The money market was steady, with an easier tendency. Local securities were firm, with a slight improvement in the demand. New York and sterling exchange were easier. Wheat in West areas was stronger, but broke later, but by a decline of 1½ to finish weaker.—The Chicago produce markets were fairly active and generally better. Wheat was easier, with a fair speculative demand, but closed weak, buyers of short notice off for the government report, which followed later. As compared with Thursday corn and oats closed unchanged, pork 2½ cents higher, others but little changed, lard 5c cent lower, ribs 2½ cent lower, and barley steady, and November 1 cent lower.

Unless our arch-conservative, fast-vegetating, and slow to the embrace of the new contemporaries are very much mistaken, the Tribune's announcement in the Columbian World's fair has the prospect for it coming to Chicago may be declared good. The sentiment among, with a few exceptions, is in favor of Chicago, and—what is more important—the leaders, congressmen and, as it appears, a majority of the southern congressmen are inclined the same way. There is no [illegible] now, as in New York, and there is no fear that Chicago will fail to do her duty. The tribute bestowed is being managed by the smaller Chicago way, which seldom wins. The large and scope of the matter, proper are not lacked. The work of getting the fair here is being achieved by capitalists of the leader. Chicago is experience and resources in the business, and that cannot overlook.

It is peculiarly appropriate that the Dutch-town monument primary to the Thirty-one cent mark (one cents out of Rifle Park) should be called down the pink lady. Senator Charles E. Chandler, who testified to the fraud, is the author of the bill. He is a member of the Republican ward committee, which does quite an amount for all of Chicago. There is not much doubt that Dutch-town, persuaded by the other ward wards will be held under the same law. It remains for representatives of all the varied Republican voters, to vote against the possibility of "scalping" at the primaries, and to aid pure as well as the personal officeholding candidates, who are the curse of our best politics. The leading grievance of the new law seems fully set forth in THE TRIBUNE'S DAY BOOK.

There is not much doubt that Mr. Russell is seriously ill. He is reported in the English papers just to have an operation before the Parnell commission "apparent and more." His exact work in connection with the Times' forged part the opposition in Parliament much both sides. The performances of Salvini (the Hertz, events) [illegible] Mr. Irving, and Miss [illegible] of her age of "20." Barrington [illegible] this week. It is to be hoped that the retirement to the south of France will be prolonged beyond a year. Just what is to succeed Lord Iddesleigh, the chivalrous gentleman of the Irish party, is also in your books, and is now off to [illegible]. Justin McCarthy is the old, and that not sufficient inspiration at point of leadership. The Daily is the spoke man of the Parnell party, but he is no eloquence. Gosden is only a talker. Prime Mahoney, Sexton is not a Protestant, and a real, successful, and educated gentleman, seems to be the natural successor of the Irish leader.

Rudolf Elcho age an inquiry was set on foot [illegible] a criminal newspaper to ascertain where her husband is now reported. In answering up her copies the investigators said: "Both lawyers and ministers say that she is living in the Sabbath in better reported and circulation services are better attended than the years ago." The pile [illegible] explains the sanctimony of the most "pious" by the statement that "California is the only state in the union where the ballot and the gospel are independent of each other and where the day of rest and the day to be kept holy seem to [illegible] to conveniently." California being reported the Sunday just in 1889. A great many good people have accepted as fact these and produced from society, but certainly were not informed the pile California is unfortunate to say: "We observed these facts and had reasons to the other states, saying that both people will become as sin, sinful and dissolute, without being driven by the evil of the law."

Mr. Elmer S. Dixon is representative as being in duty to Mayor Cregier at the Oakland republican meeting Thursday that the installation of the Cregier license must first be accomplished with the natural Democrat basis. Mr. Dixon was hardly correct in his replies. The significant portion of Cregier was reported into Michigan, and ex-Mayor Harrison, who is a good engineer, present on his meetings that all of River Park would of Seventy-sixth street follow into the Lincoln basis. The Dixon committee from Cregier would, however, on the south, [illegible] to accept him. It may be remembered that on the notorious meeting Mayor Cregier gave as a reason for supporting the resolution of the council increasing the saloon [illegible] to reference to the argument that such duty had been already collected under the decision of the Supreme committee. It is said, but it was necessary to support of a saloon vote, and Mayor Cregier was addressed to save his vote elected to the license of the city of Chicago.

In the issue of the year to the municipal of the original municipalities of Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West Virginia [illegible] are considerably stated in the circular the enumeration is more what the census of 1880, of the two, and more quite of the city over one of the consolidated [illegible] Pittsburgh, which also appeared was for a [illegible] and not what she thought it was. Those for an Indianapolis in taking [illegible] to a race to enter that his arrangers, who are members, may be brought to justice. Instances who are American citizens in fact as well as in name are justified in entering the country's gateways. Those instances who observed the duty are not good citizens.

The steady advance in the matters of commissioners efforts to get at the facts in railroads in Congress seemed to fully justified in all the steps he has taken. He is right in offering testimony to Detroit. He would be instructed if he allows [illegible] to Congress or to Biggs, who are more deeply implicated than Butler.

THE PLAGUE AT ANTOFAGASTA.

Gen. Charles E. C. Cutts has written a short but [illegible] letter with the above title to the York [illegible] Sun for July which [illegible] a sentiment and explicable [illegible] the acts of [illegible], the correspondency [illegible] duty under more the [illegible] and the natural officers, and the [illegible] of that and interference with the public business [illegible] condition. The suggestions which to effect all the more important [illegible] the article was written after several [illegible] of the city described and attended some [illegible] of congressmen, and public officers present at the White House, chiefly selected from executive [illegible] business by the President's prerogative with a [illegible] of [illegible] dispensaries and their friends, who labored under the impression that the beginning of patronage is the first and most important duty of the executive and the chief of departments. Gen. Cutts says:

The fact is that at least three-fourths of the [illegible] of the department's time is occupied in [illegible] to applicants for office, and in the [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
